The Mule Deer Foundation is a 501 c(3) charitable organization. The Mule Deer Foundation's Auction and Silent Auction allow buyers (as well as those who donate auction items) to take full tax advantage of the contributions they make. The fair market value or estimated fair market value will be provided for each item. IRS regulations allow donors to consider the amount paid for the item, in excess of its fair market value, as a charitable contribution. Only the part of payment for any auction item which is made with the intention of giving a gift, and for which the tax payer receives no consideration, qualifies as a charitable contribution. Participants in the Mule Deer Foundation's Auction and Silent Auction should consult with their tax advisor regarding the tax-deductibility and/or applicable IRS regulations for their auction-related donations.

Thank you for your support of the Mule Deer Foundation Banquet and Fundraiser
